Small Price current meters 17 8 SURFACE WATER SUPPLY OF THE MISSOURI RIVER BASIN, 1911. By W. A. Lamb, W. B. Freeman, and Raymond Richards. AUTHORITY FOR THE WORK. This volume is Part V1 of a series of 12 reports presenting results of measurements of flow made on certain streams in the United States during the calendar year 1911. The reports are listed in the following table: Papers on surface water supply of the United States, 1911. a For the purpose of uniformity in the presentation of reports, a general plan has been agreed upon by the United States Reclamation Service, the United States Forest Service, the United States Weather Bureau, and the United States Geological Survey, according to which the area of the United States has been divided into 12 parts, whose boundaries coincide with natural drainage lines indicated by the parts of the report. The data presented in these reports were collected by the United States Geological Survey under authority implied in the organic law (20 Stat. L. , p. 394), which contains the following paragraph: Provided, That this officer the Director shall have the direction of the geological survey and the classification of public lands and examination of the geological structure, mineral resources, and products of the national domain. The work was begun in 1888 in connection with special studies of water supply for irrigation. Since the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, successive sundry civil bills passed...
