She remembers, too, the countless gifts that aren t things at all--the music of Verdi, the poetry of Maeterlinck, and the memory of noble men and women like Savonorola and Joan of Arc. Do you wonder that America has labeled her own gifts, For Those Who Gave To Me ? DID you know that food sharing is an old, old custom in America--almost three centuries older than Mr. Hoover and the war? In fact, if the friendly Indians of long ago had not shared their corn with the handful of Pilgrim Fathers from England, the brave little infant colonies would have had a very hard time growing up into the big, healthy America of to-day. Surely everybody in the world...
