Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I was a very smart child at the age of thirteen-an unusually smart child, I thought at the time. It was then that I did my first newspaper scribbling, and most unexpectedly to me it stirred up a fine sensation in the community. It did, indeed, and I was very proud of it, too. I was a printer s devil, and a progressive and aspiring one. My uncle had me on his paper (the Weekly Hannibal Journal, two dollars a year, in advance-five hundred subscribers, and they paid in cord-wood, cabbages, and unmarketable turnips), and on a lucky summer s day he left town to be gone a week, and asked me if I thought I could edit one issue of the paper judiciously. Ah! didn t I want to try! Higgins was the editor on the rival paper. He had lately been jilted, and one night a friend found an open note on the poor fellow s bed, in which he stated that he could no longer endure life and had drowned himself in...
