Funny, powerful moving. -Profiled on NPR. Listen now at: // this delightful new genre of wordplay. [said in exactly 7 words of course] -Prof. Steven Pinker, Harvard Univ.Seven At The Sevens is for writers interested in building a successful and supportive literary community. -Princeton Univ. Alumni MagazineIf you love writing, this book will make you feel connected with a passionate funny group of people who share your love. The illustrations are memorable, sometimes haunting. The quotes from Hemingway others will inspire you. Goes with Charlie Haden s American Dream. -American novelist Barry Eisler, San FranciscoA stroll down Charles Street in Beacon Hill feels like a step back in time-the 19th century, in fact. Stop at 77 Charles St. you ll find yourself at The Sevens Pub, a historic establishment that opened in 1933. If it happens to be a Tuesday night at 7, you ll often see a group of writers huddled in the left window of the pub, discussing everything from Walt Whitman to the origin of the universe. They are WritersAnonymous. -Boston GlobeAs you savor these succinct musings, you realize you do not need a lot of words to convey something poignant and powerful. It is above all the brevity of the language that is the engine that provides the inspiration that perhaps, will enable you to embrace the challenge with both trepidation and delight. -Publisher/Editor, Norman Goldman, MontrealDue to this volume our campus book club is now a writers group. -Student*, Dartmouth Col.On most good days, if we re not trying to suck the cerebral cortex out of some wannabe writer s eye sockets, at The Rag we like nothing more than the...
