F. Denison, Rev. Dr. S. S. Parker and George B. Peck were appointed a committee to consider a plan for the proper celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the formation of the Convention. This committee subsequently reported a plan, which was adopted, as follows: 1. That our jubilee anniversary be held May 12, 1875, with the First Baptist Church in Providence, and that, when the Convention closes its present session, it adjourn to meet at the time and place here mentioned. 2. That the forenoon be given to suitable devotional exercises and a discourse, by Rev. A. H. Granger, D. D., on the history of the Convention, with a jubilee hymn by Rev. F. Denison and a commemorative ode by Rev. S. D. Phelps, D. D. 3. That the afternoon be given to proper devotions, with a discourse from the President, Rev....
